Web3 Community Manager and Project Lead

Web3 Community Manager and Project Lead with a proven track record of building vibrant online crypto communities and driving project growth from launch to peak market capitalization. Deep knowledge of social platforms, Web3 tooling (Discord, Telegram), blockchain, cryptocurrencies, NFTs, and DeFi. Skilled at translating social strategy and data-driven content into measurable community growth, engagement, and successful project outcomes.

EXPERIENCE

Web3 Project Lead | CATVAX CTO

- Managed project funding and treasury, raising a $5,000 donation fund supporting cat clinics and unvaccinated individuals in Los Angeles, USA, and Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.
- Drove strategic and technical initiatives that helped the project reach a $4 million market cap at peak.
- Led a successful community takeover, demonstrating strong leadership and community-building skills.
- Spearheaded development and execution of the project roadmap for Q2 and Q3.
- Built and maintained strategic partnerships and collaborations to support project growth.

Social Media Manager | Athena DAO – $BABY Token

- Managed social media channels, including X (Twitter) Spaces and Telegram, for $BABY Token, a DeSci meme token.
- Organized community engagement events, including X Spaces under AthenaDAO, to foster discussion and participation.
- Assisted in onboarding skilled team members to support project growth.
- Contributed to a successful token launch on Pinksale following completion of the presale phase.

Social Media Manager | X Threader – CATVAX

- Spearheaded social media strategy for CATVAX, a cat-themed meme token supporting unvaccinated animals and individuals.
- Grew Telegram community from 500 to 10,000 members and X following from 500 to 10,000 within two months.
- Increased brand visibility and engagement across all social platforms, contributing to a $10 million peak market capitalization.
- Played a pivotal role in securing a listing on the MEXC exchange, expanding the project's reach.
- Created and posted engaging content consistently to maintain community interest and drive growth.
- Onboarded and mentored new team members to strengthen the social media team.
